Coleman Man Missing At Vicary Creek Mine

Timothy Span, 28-year-old Coleman mine-worker, was lost in a mining mishap at Coleman Collieries Vicary Creek mine, 12 miles north of here around noon February 17, when what is believed to be an underground lake, broke loose and flooded some 1700 feet of tunnel in the mine.

Span, a carpenter working for Coleman Collieries, for about nine months, was doing some work in the vicinity of 49 chute when a terrific deluge of water came down one of the mine chutes.

Mr. Span's partner, Vince Janostak, had left the mine earlier in the shift when his clothing became too wet to work.

It is estimated that approximately 1700 feet of the mine tunnel is filled with muck and water, and two mine diesel locomotives, three hoists and other mine equipment are buried in the tunnel.

Rescue crews of 15 men headed by company officials, are working around the clock in an attempt to locate Mr. Span, who may be in some unflooded pocket in the mine. The mine entry is flooded from 50 chute to the outside distance of over 6,000 feet.

Damage to the mine property and equipment has not yet been estimated.

Mr. Span, 28 years of age, has a wife Glenda, and three small children under four years of age, living in Willow Drive in West Coleman. Prior to coming to Coleman about four years ago, Mr. Span resided in Taber.

HOCKEY TROPHY PRESENTED

HOCKEY TROPHIES — Tony Merkle, left, manager of the Taber hockey team, received three trophies on behalf of the South Alberta Intermediate Hockey League at Coleman recently. Bruce Letendre presented the trophies on behalf of the Calgary Brewing and Malting Co. The top trophy goes to the league's championship team; the trophy and mug on the table go to most valuable player. The mug may be kept by its winner.

In making the presentation, Mr. Letendre stated that the Brewery, whenever possible, appreciates the opportunity to participate with a community interested in character building through various athletic achievements.

Vance Caskey, Grand Union Hotel manager-owner, donated to the League the Grand Union Hotel trophy for the league's best goalkeeper.

Presentations were made at a press conference prior to a Sunday afternoon hockey game on February 7th.

Small Attendance at Annual Meeting

The Annual ratepayers meeting for the town of Coleman was held in the Council chamber on February 22nd with a very small attendance of ratepayers present.

Mayor John Holyk presented a report for the Coleman Gas Company which showed that a total clear profit of $832 had been realized for the year. He also reported for the Coleman Light and Water Company showing that the net income for the year from this utility was $5,000.

Councillor Ted Kryczka reported for the Finance committee and the Buildings committee while the Works and Property report was presented by Councillor J. Hanrahan. Councillor Mel Cornett gave a resume of the Fire and Police committee activities for the year and Rudy Szmanek gave an outline of the work done during the year by the Parks, Cemetery and Arena committee.

All reports indicated that Coleman had enjoyed another successful year of progress and that this year the town was undertaking the installation of a sewerage system to service the town. This additional service will provide Coleman with all of the conveniences of a modern town.

The Association has requested that all trophies being held by sportsmen for their last year's win to please bring the trophies in to Cella's Building and Supplies on or before February 27th for scoring purposes.

Each entry must have a 1964 tag attached. Refreshments will be served at the event.

Red Cross Sunday Salutes Volunteers

March is Red Cross Month across Canada — a period during which the National and International work of the Red Cross is brought into sharp focus during fund-raising and promotional campaigns.

As a fitting prelude to the month Sunday, March 7th will be observed as Red Cross Sunday throughout Alberta, with Saturday, March 6th designated as Red Cross Sabbath.

The clergy of major denominations in the province have been invited to mention the humanitarian work of the Society during these days, which will also serve as an occasion to pay tribute to the thousands of men, women and children who serve as Red Cross volunteers.

Collieries Bring in Machinery To Speed Up Rescue Work

Coleman Collieries Limited, in a desperate attempt to clear the Vicary Creek mine tunnel of thousands of tons of rubble and muck, brought down into the mine by a deluge of water from what is believed to have an underground lake, have brought in, by air, an overhead loader from Vancouver, B. C., to speed up the rescue work being done by hard-working miners attempting to find Timothy Span.

Mr. Span has been missing since around noon Wednesday, February 17th, when he was last seen around the counter in the 49 chute area of the mine about 6,000 feet in the mine from the outside.

Eugene Fabro, superintendent of Coleman Collieries, stated Friday evening that the air-driven overhead loader was obtained by the Coal Company from Nelson Machinery in Vancouver, and was expected to arrive in Coleman on Friday evening.

It was hoped by company officials that the machinery would be swinging into operation late Friday night so that clean-up operations would be speeded up.

Sixteen-man crews doing six-hour shifts, are working around the clock to try to rescue Mr. Span. The rescue crews, besides clearing up the entry are also working in the counter which runs on a higher level parallel to the main entry. Tunnels running uphill at an angle, connect the main entry and the counter together. The tunnels and chutes are spaced at 125-foot distances apart.

Mr. Fabro stated that the men were working between the 20 and 30 chute mark Friday evening. He said it was very difficult to estimate the length of time it would take to get to the 49 chute area as there were many factors to consider, including the possibility of caves, water, heavy debris to move and other conditions which slowed down progress.

George Jenkins, president of Local 2633 United Mine Workers of America, of Coleman, stated that the Union was more than pleased with the efforts being made by Coleman Collieries to rescue Mr. Span, and also clean up the mine entry. He said that working conditions in the Vicary Mine were generally good, although at times in winter it was a little cold in the mine and that the mine has always been damp to work in.

He added that the men were, on the whole, happy with working conditions.

Coleman Lad Loses Legs

Nicky Paskiowski, seven-year-old son of Mrs. Mary, Stephen Paskiowski of East Coleman, lost both of his legs in a railway crossing accident around 1:00 p.m. Friday afternoon, February 12.

The lad, with other friends, was enroute to the Coleman elementary school, where Nicky is a grade one student. The young people were standing near the railway tracks at the East Coleman crossing, waiting for a west-bound train to go by. The train was moving slowly and it is alleged that Nicky's coat caught on a ladder on the side of a box car, and he was pulled under the wheels.

Stu Murdoch, a Coleman resident, was nearby, and rendered assistance.

Albert Kropinik, a Coleman resident, who was nearby, with his station wagon, rushed the lad to the Crows Nest Pass Municipal Hospital, where it was necessary to amputate both legs below the knees.

Attending physician was Dr. Victor Martinez. The lad is in fair condition.

Nicky has two older brothers, John 16, and Billy 10.

Holland Pilgrimage For Kin Of War Dead

OTTAWA, Ont. — The Royal Canadian Legion has announced that the ninth pilgrimage to Holland, for relatives of Canadian war dead buried there, leaves Montreal on May 2nd.

Some 140 pilgrims will be based at Bergen-Op-Zoom and Holten during the eight days in Holland. Both of these areas are sites of Canadian cemeteries. While in Holland, the Canadian visitors will be guests of Dutch families.

The Netherlands War Graves committee, a private organization responsible for the pilgrimages, will also provide financial assistance to next-of-kin in necessary circumstances. A fixed amount has been set aside so that parents, who otherwise might never make the trip, may visit their son's grave. While the fund is limited, it is possible that individuals might be assisted to the full extent of the cost.

OF MANY THINGS

(By Ambrose Hills)

Why Farm Buildings Should Not Be Taxed

It would be a sad mistake for the Manitoba government to tax farm buildings as now being proposed.

Farmers, to begin with, miss out on the $500.00 paid by the Federal government to those who build in the winter. Contractors, asked to build in farm country in winter, suddenly are too busy. It is no fun for contractors and workmen to get snowed in.

Second, the farmer gets no services, very little police protection, no water, no fire hydrant. Why should his buildings be taxed?

Third, the expense of assessing and collecting a tax on farm buildings is scarcely worth the net income that would be received.

Fourth, the tax would lead farmers to tear down homes and barns and go into town, simply mining grain from the land and abandoning cattle, pigs and poultry, which require them to be present at all times.

Politicians often dream up ways to win farm votes. Why suddenly start to tax his buildings, which have been free of such taxes from time immemorial?

Voters will take careful note of Hansard. Any MLA in government or in opposition who votes to tax farm buildings will be promptly booted out of power. Not only by rural voters, for the consumer knows he will have to pay such taxes in the price of pork, poultry, eggs or beef.

If governments would leave the farmer alone, he could survive. Fortunes have been wasted trying to help the farmer, when what is most required is that the farmer be left alone, and not saddled with continually rising costs.

City dwellers can group to fight bad assessments. The individual farmer, isolated, is at the assessor's mercy. Assessors are overloaded with that particular quality!

OF MANY THINGS

(By Ambrose Hills)

Don't Miss Out On Idea-Power

I saw an automobile stuck in the mud. A passerby stopped to lend a hand, but the car did not budge. The owner stepped out from behind the wheel. "Here, you drive," he said, "and I'll push it." They changed places and presto, the car rolled free. Was it extra muscle that did the job?

No. It was the power of an idea. The owner wanted badly to get out and that was what prompted his more powerful push.

That, of course, is a crude example of a complex truth. Ideas have fabulous power. Individuals who realize it are one up on the neighbor who does not. Those who know the value of ideas take time to think, to imagine, to motivate themselves and those who work with them.

The boss who says to his workers, "Finish this assignment by six o'clock and there'll be an extra five-spot in your pay envelope", is using the power of an idea. He is encouraging workers to match their pay with productivity. He seeks to involve each individual in the job at hand. That is a powerful idea, and it has helped build the free society we know today.

The new Russian officials are beginning to do away with central planning and go back to the supply-and-demand type of economy. They have found after some 50 years of experiment that the communist idea has failed. It will not produce the goods nor will it distribute them properly. It missed out on the vital thing; the personal involvement of individuals. On private plots the Russian farmers produced more than did the huge State farms, because they were working for themselves.

If these things are true for entire societies, consider how important they can be in your own life. Are you scrabbling along without taking thought? If so, are you like an automobile using inferior gasoline. Get yourself an idea of what you want to be and what you want to achieve. You'll be surprised at what idea-power can do for you!

Canada Theatre

(Clayton Bricker)

Screen and projection equipment for 16mm small group viewing normally comprises a 52"x70" screen, almost six feet wide, suitable for a maximum audience of 80 persons, which allows six square feet per person.

This approximates an average meeting or classroom. A projector with a 2" lens at a distance of 30 feet will provide an adequate picture and a 750 watt lamp sufficient light in a semi-dark room having indirect lighting.

In a room of this size sound volume and tone will be that of the normal speaking voice. The group will sit around and in front of the projector. Choice viewing space is in the middle so to avoid a centre aisle, the machine should rest on a high stand to permit projecting above the audience. The extension speaker behind, beside or beneath the screen will address them head high.

If a 2 1/2" lens is used the projector will stand well back at 35 feet and, if a 3" lens it will be entirely behind the group at 45 feet, very probably in an adjacent projection room. The small monitor speaker in the projector case will then be invaluable to the operator.

In the usual group situation with a 6 ft. screen and a 2" lens the projector is invariably within the room. In this case the monitor speaker can do the job if the film carries only commentary. But, if the film carries a dramatized production with actors, the monitor MUST NOT be used. Instead, he extension speaker, head high by the screen, will bring the voice from that expected point of origin.

To repeat — in this contained situation the two speakers MUST NOT BE USED TOGETHER since the smaller monitor will mock the extension speaker and irritate the viewers. Moreover, the extension speaker MUST NEVER be operated from the floor to provide a subterranean drama from the ether regions.

It is utterly folly, in order to accommodate more persons, to move this small group equipment into a cavernous gym-auditorium, which is comparable to "asking a small boy to do a man's work". A bad show MUST result, and this is worse than no show at all.

Such failure cannot be blamed on the film since film production today is in a very high order of excellence. It can always be blamed on the ignorance of the management and the operator. The latter, if he is at all knowledgeable in his field, will refuse to perform under these conditions, since, if he does, he not only discredits himself but worse, he discourages interest and destroys respect for this medium.

The only alternative is to pack them in and turn them away under proper conditions, repeating the show as often as necessary to accommodate them — if this is possible. Regardless you will have satisfied viewers and some with disappointed desire who will be less tardy at your next offering.

Disappoint them all and you lose most of them. They will not return to be victimized again, but will develop undeserved contempt for this fine service from those who abuse it in such thoughtless, slovenly fashion. It is utterly defeating to put on a bad show in this day of high quality product. Excellence in presentation is mandatory. A film deserves and must have the same respectful consideration as an invited personality in any field of endeavor.

Preliminary Statement To Special Committee

(Preliminary Statement to Special Committee of the Senate and House of Commons on Canada Pension Plan—Jan. 15, 1965).

The Senior Women's committee for Pension Increase has studied the Canada Pension Plan very carefully and find that the Bill is proposing to build up a plan to provide for retirement for people 10, 15 or 25 years from now and totally neglecting the people of today.

The economic system of the world has changed rapidly even in Canada in the last 25 years and, of course, no one knows how the people will live in the future. We are told that the past is gone, and there is no future, there is only today. When tomorrow gets here it is today.

Our committee is concerned with the retired people of today. We all know no one can live on $75.00 a month as our people should live. The Senate committee on aging gave us the information that 56 per cent of the women and 40 per cent of the men in Canada between the ages of 70-79 are trying to exist on less than $1,000 a year — in the 80 age the percentage is higher.

Democracy is government by the people for the people and we the people are informing the government that adequate provision must be made for these 65 years and over.

You know, of course, of the petition our committee sent out across Canada from the Yukon to Newfoundland and it would give the government something to think about if the members could read the thousands of letters and signatures that come in.

We insist that adequate provision be made early in the next session of parliament and a free vote taken to raise the pension to $100 at 65 in '65.

Ethel Nelson, Chairman, Senior Women's Committee for Pension Increase, 172 Madison Ave., Toronto 5, Ont.

The Family Service Bureau of Pincher Creek and Crows Nest Pass

In September, 1964, Rev. P. B. O'Byrne, director of Catholic Family Service for the diocese of Calgary, was in Blairmore to address two meetings regarding the feasibility of setting up a non-denominational family service bureau in the Crows Nest Pass area.

The first meeting, attended by the Catholic clergy from Pincher Creek, Cowley, Bellevue, Blairmore and Coleman, voted in favor of such an organization to serve the district. For the past five years assistance has been given by the Lethbridge branch of Catholic Family Service on an intermittent basis, but it was felt that something of a more stable nature should be offered.

The second meeting was attended by lay representatives from Blairmore, Coleman, Frank, Bellevue and Hillcrest. It was the general feeling of the meeting that there was a decided need in the area for an organization to offer help in problems concerning family guidance, marriage counselling and child welfare.

The Sisters of St. Martha had been asked to staff an office in Blairmore should the general feeling be that there should be one. The enthusiasm shown at these meetings was proof enough that these services are needed — thus on October 1, 1964, work began. Office space was not available at this time, but by November an office located in the Kubik block in Blairmore was ready for use. Sister Leo Agnes of St. Alphonsus Convent is in charge of this office.

Catholic Family Service of Calgary provided the financial assistance that was needed until the end of the year. In the meantime some members of the board have been looking into the possibilities of financing the agency for the coming year. The agency's official name is "The Family Service Bureau of Pincher Creek and Crows Nest Pass", but it will be called by the shorter name of "Family Service Bureau".

In the short time that the agency has been in operation several cases have been brought to our attention. Two were referred by the Calgary office of Catholic Family Service, one from Lethbridge Catholic Family Service, two from the town office of Blairmore and several were self-referrals. We have had two requests for adoption, but due to the present Child Welfare Act in Alberta, these requests had to be referred to the Department of Public Welfare. We have had several requests for help in finding capable women to take care of children while the mother is in hospital and have been able to be of some help.

Clothing and household articles have been supplied to needy families in the area.

Our agency made families happy at Christmas time by providing them with some assistance.

The new "Family Service Bureau" in the Crows Nest Pass has been favorably received by the members of the town councils and residents.

Since it is a non-denominational organization anyone in the area may feel free to use the services offered, which are:

Casework counselling to families and individuals, information and referral services.

Much encouragement has been given by Mr. William Kovach, M.L.A., who sees in this service an effort to implement the thinking of the provincial government that local areas do as much as possible to handle their own welfare problems with assistance where necessary from the province.

Very Rev. P. A. Tessier has been untiring in his efforts to make the organization known and understood. To this end he organized many meetings, both with the clergy and the laity.

Members of the Board are — William Kovach, M.L.A., Hillcrest; Chairman, Very Rev. P. A. Tessier, Blairmore, secretary; Rev. K. Iwaasa, Blairmore, treasurer; Joe Fortunato, Bellevue, vice-president; Directors: Mort McNeill, Hillcrest; John Holyk, Coleman; Harold Atkinson and Louis Hucik, Blairmore, with Sister Leo Agnes as executive secretary.

The Metaphysical Society,
Box 4022, Postal Stn. 'E',
Ottawa, Ont.

Jan. 29, 1965.

Dear Sir:

The Metaphysical Society concerns itself with the varied manifestations of psychic phenomena, and is interested in any experiences with extra-sensory perception which Canadians may have had.

Would you be so kind as to print this letter in order that any of your readers who have experienced supernatural incidents and would care to tell about them, might write to the Society. All such letters would receive personal replies and would either be kept confidential or recorded in our publications, according to the writer's preference.

Anyone who would like to contribute an incident should try to state the date and place of the occurrence, giving as much detail as possible. Information on ethnic origin is also helpful for cross reference purposes, but this is entirely up to the writer.

Thank you for your consideration.

Yours truly,
J. McCANN (Mrs.),
Secretary.

VIEWING HIGHLIGHTS FOR THE COMING WEEK

FEB. 27 — MARCH 5

The great jazz pianist-composer, Duke Ellington, conducts his band from the keyboard in a one-hour musical portrait, The Duke, to be telecast on the CBC television network Wednesday, March 3rd in the Festival series. Ellington, his band, vocalist Jody Sherrill and dancer Bunny Briggs, perform the Ellington music from his early days to the present.

The Cross-Canada Curling series concludes this Saturday afternoon, February 27, with the championship game between Ron Norrbooth of Alberta, and Bruce Hudson of Manitoba.

Don Wittman will do the rock-by-rock commentary on the match from Rossmore Curling Club in Winnipeg.

Wittman, by the way, will be leaving soon for Tampere, Finland, where he will follow the fortunes of Canada's National hockey team and will broadcast three of their most important games "live" on CBC radio. The games will also be shown on CBC television on a delayed basis. More news on world hockey later.

According to the publicity blurbs Jack Benny has been seen and heard by more people than any other performer in show business history. He'll be seen twice more this week by CBC television viewers. In addition to his regular program, Tuesday at 8 p.m., Jack Benny will be the object of an affectionate look by Canadian comedians Johnny Wayne and Frank Shuster, Monday evening at 8 on the Show of the Week.

Wayne and Shuster will trace Benny's career through vaudeville to the great days of radio and television. Some memorable moments include routines with George Burns, Bing Crosby, Bob Hope and Marilyn Monroe; and violin duets with Gisele McKenzie and Isaac Stern, and an excerpt from his film "The Horn Blows at Midnight".

Due to a writers' strike in Great Britain the production of Danger Man has been at least temporarily suspended. It will be replaced for the next seven weeks on the CBC-TV network by six Wolper Productions (war time documentaries by the producers of Biography and Men in Crisis), and one Canada 98 program. The show Monday, March 1st will be "Trial at Nuremberg".

Auto experts claim that every second car off an assembly line in North America is destined to be in an accident and cause injury to someone. There is an urgent need for a safer automobile.

Wednesday, March 3 at 10:30 p.m. the National Film Board in a film entitled "Every Second Car" demonstrates the research being conducted into automotive safety devices such as hydraulic bumpers, collapsible steering wheels and recessed dashboards.

The variety field offers two live "on-location" shows. Ed Sullivan's program from Miami Beach and a Perry Como Special from Boston. Sullivan's bill of fare on Sunday evening at 8 includes comedians

Alan King and Bill Dana, the Barry Sisters, dancer Juliet Prowse, singer Wayne Newton and a singing group consisting of eight jockeys, presently riding at Hinesh Race Track.

Perry's guests, Thursday, March 4th will be Lena Horne, Peter Nero, Johnny Fuleo and his harmonica gang and Wellesey College Choir.

Coleman Man Is Fined

Raymond Campbell was assessed a total of $250.50 in fines and costs when he appeared before Magistrate F. S. Radford of Blairmore, on seven charges including assault, wilful damage and being drunk. Campbell was also interdicted for a period of five years.

Charges were preferred by town police, a hotel management and several Coleman individuals who were involved in a fracas that started in a local hotel.

Herbert Lafonde of Coleman, and formerly of Leask, Sask., who was on his own recognizance, and was involved in the fracas, was supposed to appear at the trial, failed to do so and as a result a warrant has been issued for his arrest.

Several charges have been laid against Lafonde for his part in the incident.
